Part 10. Additional Questions

Question 27.

The first time I and my family entered to U.S.A. was on May 10, 1985. I submitted a political asylum application in San Francisco, California. It was at a later time when I submitted my case to the Canadian Embassy.

After my case completed three years in reviewing by the U.S. Immigration court, my family and I decided to go to Canada and I told the U.S. Immigration judge about the decision in 1988. After this meeting, we received a letter from Immigration office stating that we needed to leave the USA. We took the letter to the Canadian Embassy where the Canadian Officer called USA immigration and told them that we would be leaving USA on May 12, 1988. Due to this arrangement between USA immigration Office and Canadian Embassy, our deportation order was canceled. We left the USA on May 12, 1988 and I became a Canadian Citizen.
